

Improving Iowa's Animal Cruelty Laws

Iowa's animal cruelty laws define what constitutes animal cruelty and the available penalties. Too often people feel that the penalties actually applied in cases don't "fit the crime". In this session, the Animal Rescue League's Animal Care and Control Supervisor and Animal Welfare Intervention Coordinator, will explain the current situation, what work the ARL has been doing to improve Iowa's animal cruelty laws, where we are headed next, and how you can help!

Join the Conversation

Tuesday August 4, 2015

6:00 p.m.

Humane Society of North Iowa

2700 South Birch Drive, Mason City, IA

Take Action

See current campaigns, contact representatives, and join our email list to fight for more effective animal protection laws at ARL-iowa.org/TakeAction

Hosted By

Humane Society of North Iowa

Led by ARL Humane Action Network